

Consent of Application Program Interface User

1. I am the <sup>1</sup> _____ of <sup>2</sup> _____, the Application Program Interface User, (“API User”), a <sup>3</sup> _____ with its principal offices located at <sup>4</sup> _____
and a party to the attached Terms of Use.
2. I acknowledge that I have read the Generation Attribute Tracking System, (“GATS”) Terms of Use and that I understand that PJM Environmental Information Services, Inc. (“EIS”) may modify the Terms of Use from time to time.
3. I affirm that I have authority to execute this Consent on behalf of the API User and that the API User shall not be given access to the GATS until this Consent has been signed by me and has been received by the GATS Administrator.
4. The API User represents that it meets all of the requirements for participation in GATS, as set forth in the GATS Terms of Use and the GATS Operating Rules.
5. The API User shall only use the GATS API to perform functions listed in Attachment H-1 of this Schedule, in accordance with guidelines contained in sections a-d below:
  - a. Thoroughly test all desired API functionality in the GATS test environment before such functionality will be enabled in the production system.
  - b. Only use the GATS test environment for testing API functionality. The environment is not to be used for development and/or testing of UI scripting\programming.
  - c. Minimize performance impact on other GATS users by scheduling recurring or bulk uploads during off-hours to the extent possible.
  - d. Correct errors as promptly as possible and cease sending the data in question until the issue has been resolved.
6. EIS reserves the right to disconnect API User or disable certain functionality immediately and without notice if API User fails to abide by these Terms of Use or otherwise is severely impacting other GATS Users, until such impacts are remedied by the API User.
7. API Users may from time to time request updates and enhancements to the functions listed in Attachment H-1. EIS will review proposed enhancements with other API Users to gauge interest and priority. Such enhancements, if implemented, may result in changes to the fees in Attachment H-1.

8. The API User has no reason to believe that any data or other information being provided to EIS and to GATS by the API User and/or its agents and employees is not true and correct.
9. The API User agrees to be bound by the GATS Operating Rules, the GATS Terms of Use and all other EIS agreements.
10. I declare that all statements contained herein are true and correct, to the best of my knowledge, information and belief and are made with full knowledge that EIS and all users of GATS that are subject of these Terms of Use rely upon the truth of the statements contained in this consent.
